

Income Support provides financial assistance to Albertans who do not have the resources to meet their basic needs, like food, clothing and shelter

You may qualify for Income Support if:

- You cannot work due to chronic health problems or other barriers to employment
- You are currently looking for work, working but not earning enough, or temporarily unable to work
- You need training so you can get a job
- You are faced with an unexpected, one-time emergency e.g., sudden eviction due to fire

How to apply

- Go to your nearest Alberta Works Centre (locations below)
- Centres open at 8:15am- first come first served
- You will receive a number to speak to a Service Need Determination Worker
- At the meeting with the worker, you will receive the application to fill out as well as information about what other documents you need
- Application form also available online at <http://humanservices.alberta.ca/financial-support/689.html> but must be submitted in person with a worker
- If you cannot go at 8:15am, call ahead and ask about worker availability
