Options for temporary boarding, emergency food, and surrendering your pet

If you are unable to care for your pet there are options available to you to ensure your pet is taken care of. If you need help, start by asking family, friends, and trusted neighbours if they would be able to temporarily or permanently help you care for your pet.

Please do not leave pets behind when you move, let them loose on the street, or sell/adopt them through Kijiji or Craigslist.
