Call 211 for Additional Information

**The information below has some information & words that can be triggering to those who have experienced sexual violence****

If you are in an emergency call 911

If you have experienced a sexual assault it is important to remember it is not your fault, it is the fault of the person who committed the crime. Try to:

- Find a safe place to go
- Visit a doctor or your nearest Emergency Department:
  - o SHELDON CHUMIR URGENT CARE: 1213 4 Street SW Calgary, Alberta, T2R 0X7
  - o ALBERTA CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL: 28 Oki Drive NW, Calgary, Alberta, T3B 6A8
- Talking to someone you trust. You can call or text: Alberta's One line for Sexual Violence at 1-866-403-8000
- You can read more information by visiting Association of Alberta Sexual Assault Services (AASAS) at: aasas.ca

What is sexual assault and sexual harassment?

Sexual assault is any type of sex or sexual touching that is unwanted and can include threats, physical force and intimidation. Sexual harassment is any unwelcome sexual behaviour that affects, threatens to affect a persons job security, working conditions, or prevents a person from getting a job or any kind of public service.
